Coos Bay Farmers Market
Parking Enforcement Policy

This policy is to enforce the parking rules that have been outlined in the 2020 Guidelines. We are all a part of the market to provide a wonderful service to our community. Since we are located in the middle of downtown Coos Bay, there are many businesses that are affected by the market’s presence. To keep our presence welcome in downtown Coos Bay, we must respect the daily happenings of our local businesses.

Where you can park:

- The lot at 2nd & Curtis by 7 Devils
- The lot across Hwy 101 S at The Visitor’s Center
- Street parking on Market, Highland, Hwy 101 Northbound
- Black Market Gourmet Parking lot off of 4th (not in lot next to City Subs)

Where you cannot park:

- The lot behind Rife’s Home Furniture
- The lot behind Jennie’s Shoes & Checkerberry’s
- The lot at The Hall Building
- 2nd and 3rd cross streets between Anderson and Commercial
  - 2nd Street: Between Rife’s and Checkberries
  - 3rd Street: Between Time Bomb and Hall Building

Penalties if you are parking in undesignated vendor zones:

- 1st: Verbal warning and a request to move your vehicle
- 2nd: $50 fine paid to the Coos Bay Downtown Association
- 3rd: 3-week suspension from the market
